

OAKLAND CITY COUNCIL

RESOLUTION NO. _____ C.M.S.

INTRODUCED BY COUNCILMEMBERS NOEL GALLO AND DAN KALB

ADOPT A RESOLUTION ON THE CITY COUNCIL'S OWN MOTION SUBMITTING TO THE VOTERS AT THE NOVEMBER 8, 2016 STATEWIDE GENERAL ELECTION 1) A PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CITY CHARTER TO CREATE THE OAKLAND POLICE COMMISSION, THE COMMUNITY POLICE REVIEW AGENCY, AND A PROCESS FOR POLICE DISCIPLINE, AND 2) A PROPOSED ENABLING ORDINANCE RELATING TO THE OAKLAND POLICE COMMISSION AND THE COMMUNITY POLICE REVIEW AGENCY, AND DIRECTING THE CITY CLERK TO TAKE ANY AND ALL ACTIONS NECESSARY UNDER LAW TO PREPARE FOR AND CONDUCT THE ELECTION

WHEREAS, on April 15, 1980, the City Council established the Citizens' Police Review Board (hereinafter, Board) with jurisdiction to review certain complaints alleging Oakland Police Department officer and park ranger misconduct, to conduct fact-finding investigations, and to make advisory reports to the City Administrator. On July 30, 1996, the City Council expanded the Board's jurisdiction to include complaints involving the excessive use of force, and bias based on an individual's legally protected status (race, gender, national origin, religion, sexual orientation or disability). In 2002, the City Council further expanded the Board's jurisdiction to include all complaints filed against police officers and park rangers, and expanded the Board's size from nine (9) members to twelve (12) members. The City Council also granted the Board the option of holding evidentiary hearings using three-member panels and permitted Board members to review confidential Oakland Police Department (hereinafter, Department) records in closed session. On November 12, 2002, the City Council passed Ordinance No. 12454 C.M.S., which further refined the Board's powers to include making recommendations to the City Administrator regarding litigated cases, and enlarged the amount of time for the Board to complete its investigations. The Board, however, is not empowered to oversee Department policy, impose discipline or adjudicate disciplinary appeals; and

WHEREAS, in January 2003, the City entered into a Negotiated Settlement Agreement (hereinafter, NSA) with multiple plaintiffs who sued the City, alleging that Police Department officers violated plaintiffs' civil rights. Since implementation of the NSA, a federal monitoring team has audited – and continues to audit – the Department's progress in complying with each of the fifty-one (51) tasks identified in the NSA; and

WHEREAS, while some important progress has been made in recent years, public perception persists that the Department and the City do not adequately hold its officers accountable for misconduct, as indicated, in part, by a February 8, 2016 notice of intent to circulate a petition for placing before the voters an initiative to amend the City Charter “for the purpose of creating a more robust and credible system of holding the Oakland Police Department accountable for providing the highest level of service to the residents of Oakland.” The public perception that the Department does not effectively hold its officers accountable stems, in part, from the inconsistent and unpredictable results obtained in police officer discipline proceedings under the current administrative appeal process; moreover, such varied results lead to an erosion of public trust in this process; and

WHEREAS, maintaining public trust and confidence in the Police Department is essential for the Department to be able to provide the highest level of service to the community. In order to increase the public trust and confidence in the Department, improvements should be made to the processes for providing Department oversight and accountability. Appointing qualified members of the public to a Police Commission (hereinafter, Commission), entrusting the Commission with oversight of the Department and requiring the Commission to hold public hearings all would increase public transparency, which in turn would build a higher level of trust and confidence in the services provided by the Department. In addition, Oakland’s residents and police officers alike deserve the most thorough and fair system possible for adjudicating allegations of misconduct and related administrative appeals of police discipline decisions so that the results of such appeals are as consistent as possible. Such an appeals process would also build a higher level of trust and confidence in the services provided by the Department; and

WHEREAS, major cities across the country, including New York City, Los Angeles, and San Francisco, as well as medium-size cities such as Berkeley, Albuquerque, and Honolulu have civilian police commissions with varying degrees of oversight authority over their police departments. In recent years, more and more municipal jurisdictions have involved citizens in their law enforcement review systems, and highly publicized incidents of alleged or actual police misconduct and the years-in-the-making widespread public outrage over police misconduct, especially in African American communities, has brought the issue of civilian oversight to center stage in the United States; and

WHEREAS, The National Association for Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement, a nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting greater police accountability through the establishment or improvement of citizen oversight agencies, provides various resources on its website, including recommended standards and practices, which include the Police Oversight Principles of European Partners Against Corruption, which provides numerous recommendations for police oversight bodies including that they: (1) have independence from the executive branch of government; (2) are sufficiently separate from the hierarchy of the police subject to their oversight; (3) are governed by persons who are not currently serving as police officers; (4) have adequate finances and resources to perform their functions; (5) have full investigative powers regarding police misconduct allegations; and (6) are representative of a diverse population; and

WHEREAS, while the Department currently has an in-house sworn Inspector General, one of the best models for on-going oversight of police discipline can be found in the City of Los Angeles' Office of Inspector General. The L.A. Inspector General is a civilian who is charged with conducting systemic reviews of the disciplinary process and reports directly to the City of Los Angeles' Police Commission to ensure a necessary level of independence. The creation of a civilian Inspector General reporting to the Commission came from the Christopher Warren Commission reforms following the protests and riots stemming in part from the Rodney King jury verdict; and

WHEREAS, two reports by court-appointed investigator Edward Swanson recommend reforms including changes to the arbitration process and procedures;

WHEREAS, while creating a Police Commission and providing much-needed reforms to and oversight of the police disciplinary process will enhance accountability and improve the public's trust, it is equally important that these accountability measures and structure be adopted and implemented with appropriate checks and balances; therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council hereby authorizes and directs the City Clerk, at least 88 days prior to the next general municipal election date, to file with the Alameda County Board of Supervisors and the Registrar of Voters certified copies of this resolution; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED: That the City Council intends for this proposed Amendment to Article VI of the Charter, Section 604, together with the companion enabling ordinance, to comprehensively address independent oversight of the Oakland Police Department, with appropriate checks and balances, and reforms to the police officer discipline process; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED: That the City Charter and Oakland Municipal Code hereby are amended, to add, delete, or modify sections as set forth below (section numbers and titles are indicated in capitalized bold type; additions are indicated by underscoring, deletions are indicated by strike-through type; portions of the provisions not cited or not shown in underscoring or strike-through type are not changed); and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED: That the proposed Charter Amendment text shall be as follows:

SECTION 604 – POLICE COMMISSION

4. No later than two (2) years after the City Council has confirmed the first set of Commissioners and alternates, the City Auditor shall conduct a performance audit and a financial audit of the Commission and the Agency. All such proposed changes and modifications shall be submitted to the City Council for approval or rejection. 4. Approve or reject the Department's proposed changes to all policies, procedures, customs, and General Orders of the Department which govern use of force, use of force review boards, profiling based on any of the protected characteristics identified by federal, state, or local law, or First Amendment assemblies. If the Commission does not approve or reject the Department's proposed changes within one hundred and twenty (120) days of the Department's submission of the proposed changes to the Commission, the Department's proposed changes will become final. If the Commission rejects the Department's proposed changes, notice of the Commission's rejection, together with the Department's proposed changes, shall be submitted to the City Council for review. If the City Council does not approve or reject the Commission's decision within one hundred and twenty (120) days of the Commission's vote on the Department's proposed changes, the Commission's decision will become final.

5. Review and comment, at its discretion, on all other policies, procedures, customs, and General Orders of the Department. All such comments shall be submitted to the Chief of Police who shall provide a written response to the Commission upon request.

If acting separately, the Commission may remove the Chief of Police only after adopting a finding or findings of cause, which shall be defined by City ordinance. The Commission must make its finding of just cause by no less than five affirmative votes. Upon removal, by the Commission, by the Mayor, or by the Mayor and the Commission acting jointly, or upon the notice of vacancy of the position of Chief of Police, the Mayor, in consultation with the Chair of the Commission, shall immediately appoint an Interim Chief of Police. Such appointment shall not exceed six (6) months in duration unless approved by a majority vote of the Commission. The Commission, with the assistance of the City Administrator, shall prepare and distribute a job announcement, and prepare a list of at least four candidates and transmit the names and relevant background materials to the Mayor. The Mayor shall appoint one person from this list, or reject the list in its entirety and request a new list from the Commission. This provision shall not apply to any recruitment for the position of Chief of Police that is pending at the time of the Commission's first meeting.
10. Send the Chairperson of the Commission or another Commissioner appointed by the Chairperson to serve as a non-voting member of any level one Oakland Police Force Review Board.

1. Beginning sixty (60) days after the City Council's confirmation of the first group of Commissioners and alternates, the Agency shall receive, review and prioritize all public complaints concerning the alleged misconduct or failure to act of all Department sworn employees, including complaints from Department non-sworn employees. The Agency shall not be required to investigate each public complaint it receives, but shall investigate public complaints involving uses of force, in-custody deaths, profiling based on any of the protected characteristics identified by federal, state, or local law, and First Amendment assemblies. The Agency shall also investigate any other possible misconduct or failure to act of a Department sworn employee, whether or not the subject of a public complaint, as directed by the Commission. The Agency shall forward a copy of each complaint received to the Internal Affairs Division of the Oakland Police Department within one business day of receipt.
2. The Agency shall have the same access to all Department files and records, in addition to all files and records of other City departments and agencies, as the Department's Internal Affairs Division (IAD). The Department and other City departments and agencies shall make every reasonable effort to respond to the Agency's requests for files and records within ten (10) days.
3. The Agency shall make every reasonable effort to complete its investigations within one hundred and eighty (180) days of the filing of the complaint with the Agency. Within thirty (30) days of completion of the investigation, the Director of the Agency shall issue written findings and proposed discipline regarding the allegations stated in the complaint to the Commission and the Chief of Police. The City Administrator shall not have the authority to reject or modify the Agency's findings and proposed discipline.

4. To the extent allowed by law and after consultation with the Commission, the Agency shall forward information to other enforcement agencies, including but not limited to the Alameda County District Attorney, when such information establishes a reasonable basis for believing that a crime may have been committed by a sworn Department employee.

(g) Adjudication

1. If the Chief of Police agrees with the Agency's findings and proposed discipline, he or she shall send to the subject officer notification of findings and intent to impose discipline. ~~The Chief of Police may send such notification to the subject officer before IAD has begun or completed its investigation.~~
2. If the Chief of Police disagrees with the Agency's findings and/or proposed discipline, the Chief of Police shall prepare his or her own findings and/or proposed discipline, which shall be submitted to a Discipline Committee comprised of three Commissioners. The City Administrator shall not have the authority to reject or modify the Chief of Police's findings and proposed discipline. The Agency's findings and proposed discipline shall also be submitted to the Discipline Committee which shall review both submissions and resolve any dispute between the Agency and the Chief of Police. Based solely on the record presented by the Agency and the Chief of Police, the Discipline Committee shall submit its final decision regarding the appropriate findings and proposed discipline to the Chief of Police who shall notify the subject officer. The City Administrator shall not have the authority to reject or modify the Discipline Committee's final decision regarding the appropriate findings and level of discipline. The Discipline Committee shall not have the authority to conduct its own investigation.
3. If the Chief of Police prepares his or her own findings and proposed discipline and provides it to the Agency before the Agency's investigation is initiated or completed, the Agency may close its investigation or may choose not to conduct its own investigation in order to allow final discipline to proceed as proposed by the Chief, except that if the Agency is required to conduct an investigation by subsection (f) above, the Commission must approve the Agency's decision by a majority vote. If the Agency chooses not to close its investigation, imposition of final discipline shall be delayed until the Agency's investigation is completed and the Agency makes its findings and recommendation for discipline. The Agency shall notify the Chief of its decision regarding how it will proceed within five (5) business days of the Chief's notice of completion of his or her investigation.
4. After the findings and imposition of discipline have become final, the subject officer shall have the right to grieve / appeal the findings and imposition of discipline if such rights are prescribed in a the collective bargaining agreement. ~~The standard of proof that shall apply to all evidentiary hearings under such grievance procedures, including but not limited to hearings regarding employment terminations, is preponderance of the evidence.~~

5. All employees shall be afforded their due process and statutory rights as determined by law

~~Within sixty (60) days of the City Council's confirmation of the first group of Commissioners and alternates, the Commission shall request a list of twenty (20) arbitrators from the California State Mediation & Conciliation Service (hereinafter CSMCS), each of whom shall have ten or more years of experience as arbitrators, including experience hearing police discipline cases. The Commission shall ask for additional names if any of the arbitrators on the list received from CSMCS do not have the requisite experience. The City Attorney's Office shall strike six (6) names and the Oakland Police Officers' Association and the Oakland Police Management Association together shall strike a total of six (6) names. The resulting list of eight (8) names shall hear police discipline and termination appeals on a random basis for a period of three (3) years after which the process for compiling a list of eight (8) arbitrators shall be repeated. The list of eight arbitrators shall be made public.~~

6. ~~The arbitrator or the Civil Service Board shall be required to uphold the level of discipline imposed by the City, including but not limited to employment termination, if: (a) the City satisfies the preponderance of the evidence standard of proof; and (b) the level of discipline imposed by the City is reasonable and consistent with progressive discipline. To the extent permissible by state law, including rules regarding attorney-client privilege, the arbitrator's or Civil Service Board's disposition of each discipline case shall be made public. The Commission shall notify the complainant, if there is one, of the arbitrator's or Civil Service Board's decision, to the greatest extent permitted by law.~~

7. ~~The arbitrator, Civil Service Board, or hearing officer shall require the parties to:~~

- a. ~~Exchange the names of any expert witnesses who will testify at the hearing, together with a summary of the substance of each expert witness's anticipated testimony, at least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the first day of hearing. Any revisions or additions to this list must be made at least three (3) business days before the hearing;~~
- b. ~~Exchange a list of any non-expert witnesses who will testify at the hearing, together with a summary of the substance of each non-expert witness's anticipated testimony, at least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the first day of hearing. Such list of non-expert witnesses shall be confidential and disclosed only to the subject officer (who shall maintain the confidentiality of the list), City employees with a need to know, and counsel for the parties. Any revisions or additions to this list must be made at least three (3) business days before the hearing;~~
- c. ~~Exchange a list identifying all exhibits the party intends to introduce at the hearing at least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the first day of hearing. Any revisions or additions to this list must be made at least three (3) business days before the hearing; and~~
- d. ~~Meet and confer at least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the first day of hearing to determine whether they can agree on a joint exhibit list, and a joint stipulation of facts.~~

8. ~~Within sixty (60) days of the City Council's confirmation of the first group of Commissioners and alternates, all Department sworn employees shall also have the right to appeal any findings and discipline imposed by the Chief of Police to the Commission~~

~~in lieu of an arbitration hearing or Civil Service Board hearing prescribed in a collective bargaining agreement. Such election is irrevocable. The Commission shall conduct an evidentiary hearing where the Agency, the Chief of Police, and the subject officer shall have the right to call witnesses and submit other evidence. The standard of proof that shall apply to all such evidentiary hearings, including but not limited to hearings regarding employment terminations, is preponderance of the evidence. The Commission may delegate its authority to hold such a hearing to a hearing officer who shall be an attorney or retired judge with ten or more years of relevant experience. The Commission shall have the sole authority to choose the hearing officer. The hearing officer shall conduct the hearing and make a recommendation for final decision to the Commission. The level of discipline imposed by the City, including but not limited to employment termination, must be upheld if: (a) the City satisfies the preponderance of the evidence standard of proof; and (b) the level of discipline imposed by the City is reasonable and consistent with progressive discipline. The Commission shall make the final decision regarding the findings and level of discipline to be imposed with an affirmative vote of at least four members. To the extent permissible by state law, including rules regarding attorney-client privilege, the vote of each Commissioner regarding final decisions about discipline shall be made public. The Commission shall notify the complainant, if there is one, of its decision, to the greatest extent permitted by law.~~

- ~~9. When necessary and relevant for a discipline case to be heard by the Commission, the Commission shall have the same access to all Department files and records, in addition to all files and records of other City departments and agencies, as the Department's Internal Affairs Division. The Department and other City departments and agencies shall make every reasonable effort to respond to the Agency's requests for files and records within ten (10) days.~~
- ~~10. The Commission shall have the power to issue subpoenas to compel the appearance of witnesses, and the production of books, papers, records, and documents, and take testimony on any pending matter. The Commission or the Agency may seek a contempt order as provided by the general law of the State for a person's failure or refusal to appear, testify, or produce subpoenaed documents.~~
- ~~11. If the subject officer elects to appeal the findings and discipline imposed by the Chief of Police to the Commission as described in subsection (g)(8) above, the Commission may offer to the subject officer voluntary conciliation, mediation, referral to the Chief of Police for disposition without a hearing, or any other alternative dispute resolution method that the Commission deems appropriate. If the subject officer agrees to use an alternative dispute resolution method, the Chief of Police and the Agency Director jointly shall have full settlement authority. If no settlement is reached, the subject officer shall have the right to appeal the findings and imposition of discipline as described in subsection (g)(8) above.~~
- ~~12. The one-year statute of limitations for investigating complaints shall be tolled as required by state law when the complainant is the subject of criminal prosecution.~~

(h) Enabling Legislation

The Commission may make recommendations to the City Council for enacting legislation or regulations that will further the goals and purposes of this section 604. The City Council may, on its own initiative, enact legislation or regulations that will further the goals and purposes of this section 604 after first submitting such legislation or regulations to the Commission for review and comment. The Commission shall have forty-five (45) days to submit its comments to the City Council, such time to be extended only by agreement of the City Council.
